[Original in possession of Miss Margaret Lunam, Dunbar, Scotland]

Original
To W.A. Benjamin

Martinez, California.
January 2, 1903.

Dear Cousin:
Margaret Lunam:

I wish you and Maggie a happy New Year, and send 25 dollars for the Dunbar poor. I am glad to hear that Maggie is better. We are all about as usual. Possibly I may see you this year on my way to see more of the world's forests.

Remember me to Susan Gilroy, Jane Mather and Mrs. Kelly, and with best New Year's wishes, I am, dear cousin,

Faithfully yours,

John Muir.
